FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DELTESS CORP. PARTNERS WITH COLLEGEPRENEUR MAGAZINE

Deltess Corporation has recently partnered with Collegepreneur Magazine “the first magazine dedicated to college entrepreneurs.” (www.frantv.typepad.com/collegepreneur\_magazine/about-collegepreneur.html)

Deltess’ founders, David D’Alessandro, a graduate of the University of Colorado at Boulder, and Adam Tesser, a graduate of the University of Richmond are themselves young entrepreneurs.

“We are extremely impressed with Collegepreneur’s forward thinking. We feel it is a company that shares the same kind of enthusiasm and entrepreneurial zest we embody as owners of a corporation that designs and manufactures original products,” says Deltess CEO, David D’Alessandro.

“We would have loved the benefit of a resource like Collegepreneur Magazine to help organize our ideas, and launch our innovations when we were in college,” says Deltess President Adam Tesser.

Collegepreneur is offering a free copy of their magazine with every purchase of a Pakseat while supplies last.
